Get access

How do I get access to Clarify?

Clarify User Guide

Connect with Feide

Students and teachers have to sign in with Feide to get access to dictionaries.

NB:

The school administrators have to open up the access for Clarify so that it's ready for signing in and usage.

Connect with email / code

For companies and other organizations without Feide, you have to register a user the first time.

- 1. Click «Register»
- 2. Enter your email and create a password (minimum 6 characters)
- 3. Verify your email in the email you receive by clicking the link (if you don't receive the email, please check your trash/spam folders, or try again)

If you have domain access: You get access to Clarify with your work email.

If you have an access code: Add the access code in settings.

Search

How do I search in the dictionaries?

Language picker

In the language picker, you select which language you're searching in:

- Select the language from which you want to search in the left dropdown menu, and your target language in the right dropdown menu.
- Select «Add language» to add or change language options.
- Do you want mono-language dictionaries, like a thesaurus, select the same language in both dropdown menus.

Swap languages by pressing the arrow button

Search in dictionaries

3 ways to search:

- 1. Type in a word in the search area
- 2. Paste a copied word into the search area
- 3. If you are using an app, you can mark a word and do a quick search (see "Tips")

Search results

Article

The article lookup is shown under the language picker. Select «show more» to see the entire article.

Mini grammar

Some dictionaries have integrated mini grammar. It's opened in a separate window. Click on desired topics/words for more information.

Listen to how a word is pronounced

Have words and expressions read out loud. Press the green speaker symbol or mark the text and click «Read».

Search conjugations

This function shows search results when the search word is or might be in conjugated form. Click the word to search for it. This function separates between different word classes in conjugated forms. If it is a verb and you want it conjugated press the «V», which is the Verbix symbol.

Foreign language

If you want to search for a foreign word:

Example: You don't know what the word is in French

- 1. Search for the word from Norwegian to French
- 2. Find the translation of the word in the article and mark the word you are looking for
- 3. Click «Search»
- 4. Change the direction of the languages with the arrow button
- 5. You now see the search results for the French word

Web resources

- Integrated shortcuts to external web resources like Store Norske Leksikon, Wikipedia, Lovdata and Google Images.
- You can find the resources in the globe dropdown next to the search area.
- Click the desired resource to see the search result.
- The lookup in the external resource is done in the «from language». For Store Norske Leksikon and Lovdata the «from language» has to be Norwegian.

Text-to-speech

How to use text-to-speech?

Text-to-speech

Have Clarify read out any text

- 1. Choose the speaker icon in the top right menu
- 2. Write or paste desired text
- 3. Choose the language of the text you have entered in the dropdown menu (the languages must be the same, this is not a translation)
- 4. Choose a speed
- 5. Click the Play button

Verbix

How to use Verbix?

Verb conjugation with Verbix

- 1. Select the V-icon in the top right menu
- 2. Select language in the dropdown menu
- 3. Type or paste a verb in the selected language
- 4. If you type in another conjugation than infinitive (hear, run etc.), you will see «Show conjugations»
- 5. Click to see all conjugations of the verb

You also find a Verbix shortcut in the search results. Verbix is provided by a third party. The content is not developed by Clarify.
